

Ten A. E. F. men and relatives of five other heroes who had died received Distinguished Service Crosses recently, the ceremony taking place in front of the City Hall. Picture shows James A. Lee of The Bronx, private, Company D, 107th Infantry, receiving the Cross from Col. Benjamin W. Atkinson.

Photo, Rosenfeld.

Golf has gripped "Al" Smith, Governor of New York and idol of the East Side. Picture shows, left to right, W. A. Humphries, J. A. Moran, the Governor and Frank Gillespie on the links at Bluff Point on Lake Champlain. "Al" is "rooting home" a long putt.

Col. Sir William Smith of London, formerly president of the Royal Institute of Health, London. He accompanied the body of Gen. W. C. Gorgas, U. S. A., to America. The men were close friends.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Snapshots of Judge and Mrs. Elbert H. Gary on a shopping tour in Paris. The United States Steel Corporation's head is taking a protracted holiday.

Copyright, Keystone View.

Gen. Pilsudski, who opposed the Reds at Warsaw. A new picture of the Polish General and President received recently in America.

Copyright, Keystone View.

Long Beach, L. I., last week had a five day carnival in aid of the Army and Navy memorial clubhouse, with a variety of interesting events. Here is Lieut. Theodore N. Roderick, U. S. N., escorting two of the contestants in the girls' swimming race to the start.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

W. Averill Harriman, head of the American Ship and Commerce Corporation. By a deal with German interests he is now a world factor in shipping.

The Princess Emilie de Broglie, great-granddaughter of Isaac M. Singer of sewing machine fame.

Photo, International.